lecondē quarter happely ſhal a kyng take a Journey out of his r alme/but yf he ſo do he ſhall not come home ayen for his enmy Kyngꝭ & pryncꝭ this yere ſhall not be wout trouble & heupneſſ bycaule of dyſcorde betwene theym/& alſo Inſurrecyon of the ſubgectes/wherfore it is good þ kyngꝭ & pryncꝭ kepe theꝫ wyſe from the cōmune people & from poyſons & other perylles/nor ſhall not be good for theym to moue warre the fyrſt.iij. quarte of the yere/nor yet to moue warre by theyr meyn from þ myddes Auguſt to the.xx.day of Octobre/but yf warre be moued ayen theym lete theym relyſte it by prouyſyon & dyfferre it & þ ſhal beſt/but in concluſyon the kyngꝭ & pryncꝭ ſhall ſubdue theyr a uerſaryes as ſayd the laſt yere in my pronoſtycacōns/wherby Cornyſhmen yf they had ben wyſe myght haue ben ware.
¶ It ſholde ſeme by the reuolucyon of the yere þ kynges ſho take Journeys to fyght ayenſt theyr enmyes/but lete theꝫ be w of perylles & ſykneſſes & other ſuche hurtes & Jeopardyes.
¶ The kyng of Englond this yere ſhall ouercome his enmy ſhalbe exalted & fortunate w̄ his childern/he ſhalbe this yere poled to ryde about his realme to ſporte hym & to ouerſee & o his realme/in whiche Journey a knyght or one apte to the we a may of grete ſtrength & a ſeruaūt of the kyngꝭ court ſhall Englonde ſhall not be without ſykneſſes & peſtylences/marc tes of Englonde ſhall proſpere & haue wynnynge.
¶ The pryncꝭ Arthure this yere ſhal proſpere & encreace his ſtaūce & honour. My lorde Henry duke of Yorke/& my lady garete his ſyſter the whiche ſhall after this be a quene or elle ue ſome grete honour ſhall this yere be hole & fortunate.
¶ The kyng of fraūce ſhal this yere abyde in his realme & not go out at leſt but by a lytell Journey/yf he do he ſhall come his enmyes. But it ſhalbe good for hym to kepe good the.iij.quarter & afore leſt he haue ſykneſſes/he ſhalbe loue his ſubgectes/but it is to be doubted þ one grete may ſhall Inſurrecyon ayenſt hym/he ſhall ſpende his ſubſtaūce by ryours & by fyre. A ſcrybe or a wyſe philoſophre & a woma the kynges blood ſhall deye. The realmes of fraūce ſhall n wout dyscorde & syknelles. ¶ The kyng of Spayne this yere albe in helth & prosperyte/& his lordes & helpers shalbe exalted t some shall vary from his mynde/ þ whiche shalbe punysshed Inprysonement/he shal not be moche troubled w warre this ye but they þ be his ennmyes shall departe w worde wout batayll/payne shall not be wout syknelles & deth/& in the .ij. quarter ey shal haue stryf wherby some shalbe Inprysoned or els deye.

The kyng of Romayns this yere shalbe moued w warre & his des & helpers shalbe vexed w syknelles/& they shall not be all e to hym & his substaūce shalbe consumed by warryours/wherfo it shalbe good for hym to beware of his ennmyes of poysons & all euyll gydynge/for it is to be fered lest some Infortune hap hym & also by syknelle. The tyme of gretest peryll shalbe in þ rst & the .iij. quarter to tell þ day & houre were harde wout grete our/but wyse men wyll walke surely by þ waye. ¶ The kyng Scottes this yere shalbe in peryll of hote syknelles or els venym els some other euyl accydent/wherfor late hym beware in þ fyrst arter/his helpers nor his substaūce shall not prosper. ¶ The e of Burgoyne shalbe heuy this yere & shall haue a syknelle/erfore lete hym & his coūseyll take hede/ þ tyme of gretest peryll lbe in the .ij. quarter. Flaūdres shal not prosper for dyuerse in/unes as dyscorde batayl syknelles deth effusyon of blood & fyre Gouernours of cytees this yere shall do metely well/but lete þ beware of dyscordes syknelles & Inprysonementes & deth/& nely in the .ij. quarter & more in the west partyes than in theist tyes. As for men subget to the .xij. lygnes Jouerpalle/who lust e they hym may haue recours to þ latyn bohe. Of men subget he .vij. planetes & fyrst to Saturne. Saturn as he relygyous clothed w blacke habytes wyse physolophres & dyuynes/olde fullers & vyle men namely exercysynge themself in water this yere do metely well/lete they beware of syknelles in a all in the .iij. quarter. Jouyals as cardynals bysshops & other ys. Coūseyllours of kyngs canonystes lawyers nobles & go/ours of cytees shal do as is aforsayd of gouernours of cytees cpalles as be dukes captayns & soudyers & counseyllours of ¶ Jule shalbe temperate ynough after his nature/ but about the begynnynge shalbe grete raynes & wynde w̄ hayle thond & lyght nynge/ & namely about the .iij. daye/ dayes of alteracō after þ̄ begynnynge shalbe. viij. x. xiij. xvi. xix. xx. xxij. xxiij. xxvij. xxix. xxx.

¶ Auguſt shalbe temperate ynough after his nature/ but in the fyrſt thyrde partye shalbe grete raynes & wyndes with thonder and hayle/ but in the other two partyes it shall alter/ dayes of alteracyon. xiij. xiiij. xvij. xx. xxiij. xxvi.

¶ Septembre shalbe wyndy & rayny tempeſtuous with thonder and lyghtnynge/ dayes of alteracyon. ij. v. vi. ix. xij. xv. xvi. xix. xx. xxij. xxvi. xxvij. xxviij. xxix. xxx.

¶ Octobre shalbe accordynge to his nature fro the .iij. daye & the .vi. daye to the .xvij. and in the .xx. xxij. and .xxiij. daye shabe rayne colde & wynde & mooſt about the .xxviij. daye afore & after.

¶ Nouembre shalbe very rayny & tempeſtuous with grete chaūgynge of the ayer with rayne & wynde & happly ſnowe.

¶ Decembre shalbe colde wyndy rayny & ſnowy/ dayes of alteracō. ij. iij. vi. vij. ix. x. xiij. xvi. xvij. xviij. xxi. xxv. xxvi. xxviij. xxxi.

¶ January shalbe very colde w̄ ſtronge wynde rayne & ſnowe.

¶ February shalbe moche lyke January/ it is here to be noted þ̄ þ̄ days of alteracō ſhall not be taken þ̄ ſame ſelf day/ for ſomtyme it ſhalbe in þ̄ nyght before or after/ & alſo it may not be lyke in all places for þ̄ dyuerſyte of the clymate/ it appereth by þ̄ is afore ſayd þ̄ it ſhalbe Jeopardous ſeylynge on þ̄ ſee/ wherfore late ſhypmen & marchaūtes beware/ fyrſt ſhall blowe the eſt wynde after ſouth & then north & after weſt then eſt & by ſouth & then ſouthweſt then eſt & by north & laſt northweſt ſhall mooſt blowe/ this yere ſholde ſeme to be erthequakes in wynter & name in January and February/ wherfore I conclude þ̄ this yere ſhalbe plentuous ynough of ſuche thynges as growe on þ̄ erthe/ but in ſome places of tempeſt & corrupcyon of the ayer the fruyte ſhalbe hurte.

¶ Sonnes childern & meſſengers ſhall not do well this yere for ſykneſſes & other infortunes. This yere ſhalbe many ſyknesſes/ as feuers contynuall & tercyans peſtylence bledynge at noſe paynes of the heed the eyes the bely & many bytwene þ̄ ſkynne & the

flesshe carbuncles pokes scabbes & suche/but ther shall not many men deye therof in comparyson of so many & dyuerse sykenesses/ but yonge folke & very aged shalbe moost vexed & moost wymen As for the pockes & the cure of they who lust to rede/lete they see the latyn boke of this yere & the last & there he shall fynde þ may contente his mynde. Seruaūtes this yere both men & wymen shal not prospere bycause of sykenesses/& shall not well do theyr dewtees to theyr maysters for pryde/& many shall departe fro theyr mayster. Smale beestes as sheep goots hogges & suche other shall haue sykenesses & shal deye/wherfore it shalbe holsom to ete wylde foule. Wymen this yere shall haue many sykenesses/wymen with childe shalbe in peryll/weddynge shalbe vñ grete stryfe & fallshede & many shal make two cōtractes & namely in þ two myddel quarters. Felowes shall vse lotyltee & fallshede. This yere shalbe more dyspoled to stryf betwene kynges & theyr subgectes than þ last & the.v. daye of Septēber shalbe some grete peryll of erthe quake stryf or tyrynge/& the.ij.day of Nouēbre/& the.xxxi.day of Decē/ber/the.xxx.day of January & the.xxviij.day of Febuary late they beware þ make insurrecyons ayenst the prynce/for they shall haue the werse. The tyme that men shalbe moost dyspoled to stryf & fyghtynge shalbe the.x.& the.xxiij.day of Apryll or there about/ & after the myddes of May & the begynnynge of June & July & after þ myddes of August & afore thende of Septembre & about the begynnynge & thende of Nouembre. Yf ther be ony deth this yere of men or beestes it shall not be vnyuersall & namely of men but by the swerde/sodeyne deth & pestylence shall men deye/& a kyng or elles some noble prynce shall this yere deye/& a mayr & a woman of grete fame & rychesse shall this yere deye. Nourses & handmaydens of kyngs shalbe in peryll. Heryetages & goodes of dede men shalbe Justly admynystred. The crystey fayth shalbe honoured this yere. but as for scyence & wyledom shalbe les honoured They þ make longe Journeys & pylgryms shall do metely well/ but some shalbe vexed vñ colde sykenesses & of theyr enmyes so þ they shall neuer come home ayen. This yere shal not be good for kyngs to make longe Journeys in þ fyrst & seconde quarter/in the